The process for working together is as follows:

A) Delivery of manuscripts:

The authors refer to the coordinating team / editor CLIO your text or original material. The materials should be sent to clio@proyectoclio.com (complementary optional address privero@unizar.es). Submissions for publication between January 2 and June 30 of each year are received. It is guaranteed not to evaluate and include the texts received after that date the number of the year. The originality of the submitted material is required; the work must not have been previously published. Contributions should be in .doc or docx with the following template.

B) Characteristics of the material submitted for publication

This is an electronic publication and there is no limitation in length. Text or material must be accompanied by abstract in Spanish and English of no more than 10 lines and keywords in both languages (maximum 10). If you include images, these must be free of payment of copyright as well as respect for the right of privacy in the case that images include people. All this, as well as the originality of the text and sent materials is entirely the responsibility of the authors. The appointment system of bibliographic information will be to the APA rules (see www.apastyle.org or <http://dgb.unam.mx/index.php/submenumain-01/170-como-elaborar-citas-y-referencias-bibliograficas-estilo-apa>). The reviews do not need abstract and keywords and are limited to 4 pages in Times New Roman 12, spacing 1.5.

The text has to include name of the author or authors, institution or workplace and email address authorized to be made public. Sending originals for evaluation and publication constitutes acceptance of these conditions, as well as authorization to "Proyecto Clío"

Association for possible subsequent diffusion in different media, maintaining the evidence of the authorship.

C) Types of materials published.

Authors can send original researches in History Education and in History, articles summarizing the state of affairs of a particular topic of History or analysis of didactic proposals for teaching history, book reviews, websites, blogs, games, learning materials useful for the history classroom. It is also possible to collaborate in specific projects developed by the “Proyecto Clío” Association.

D) Peer review of manuscripts submitted.

Upon receipt of the work, the editorial team checks that all required formal characteristics are met. If not met, it communicates to the authors for them to conduct the review and perform sending a second version. Then articles are evaluated by at least one member of the scientific committee and an outside specialist to it. Upon receipt of both evaluations, the paper is accepted for publication if both are positive and if the reviewers suggest any previous acceptance modification, the authors communicates to proceed to the review of the work and to send a second version. The editorial board and scientific advisory committee publicly listed on the left side of the home page (<http://clio.rediris.es>).
